Our restaurant is taking responsibility and is showing environmental awareness, therefore we have committed ourselves to source our meat and poultry from local and sustainable farmers.

*Our classic bavarian dishes will be prepared with the domestic pork breed "Angler Sattelschwein".
These porks are raised appropriate for their species,
with enough leek and without the aid of growth hormones.
An appropriate and respectful treatment of animals is worth while and not only the environment benefits from it.
The result is impeccable you will taste the difference, come and try for yourself!*
